Dear Honorable Judge Cathy Seibel:

I don't believe I said anything about NY being a "right to work" state. I may have said NY is an "employment at will" state, which it is. In any event, the transcript will reflect what I did or did not say. Application to reconsider denial of ~~application~~

~~of~~ amendment to add IBM as a defendant is denied. My review of the complaint reveals a minimum damages claim but no maximum, so I am unclear what Plaintiff is requesting, but I can, in any event, await motions in limine before trial. There will be no conference or "meeting" before me ~~until~~ until after mediation concludes and the summary judgment motion is ~~decided~~ decided, although a conference is set for 3/16 before Judge Smith.

NO END

I wanted to send you a letter to correct our 1/23/2012 meeting and request a follow up meeting. This is my second request to schedule a meeting with your Honor, since 1/23/2012. I do understand that you have a heavy case load. At our meeting on 1/23/2012, according to my recollection, you stated that New York State was a "right to work state." According to http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Right-to-work_law, I did want to inform you that New York State is not a right to work state. I did want the 1/23/2012 minutes updated to reflect this correction. Also, I have already established in my most recent letter dated to you on February 10, 2012, that IBM violated my privacy and agency rights which resulted in Patent Fraud and Wage Discrimination. I am sending this 2nd follow up letter to my 2/10/2012 letter requesting a meeting with you to discuss and readdress A through C and the newly added items D & E.

- A. Properly identifying who the defendants are, at this time. I am hopeful that your honor will reconsider without prejudice adding IBM to the suit as well as Saturn Business Systems.
- B. Adding IBM to this lawsuit 7:10 c.v. 8505 and requesting monetary damages from IBM. We have established that the EEOC may have demonstrated prejudice during their investigation of my case, if in fact the investigator was a relative of an IBM Manager. I have established that it is entirely plausible that IBM was using their technology to monitor my business activity, while I was employed at Saturn Business Systems. This is a violation of my agency and privacy rights.
- C. Requesting an increase to monetary damages sought from Saturn Business Systems, since I have proven that Saturn Business Systems violated my rights in New York State.
- D. According to Wikipedia, New York State is not a Right to Work State. See list of states. http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Right-to-work_law
- E. Request to increase dollar damages sought prior to mediation to make this process a more effective use of everybody's time.

I look forward to our meeting to address my letter of 02/10/2012 and today's letter.

Sincerely,

Stephanie Christoff
